

COUPLES INTAKE PACKET (partner 2)

Dear Client:

Welcome to The Center For Psychological Services Ltd. Attached you will find our registration packet which includes the following forms:

- I. BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION - partner 2
- II. COUPLES AGREEMENT FOR SERVICES & CONFIDENTIALTY
- III. HIPAA: NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES - signature page
- IV. ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS STATEMENT

Please take time to read over the information and sign where necessary. Be sure to ask your doctor or therapist any questions you may have.

We look forward to working closely with you on making changes that you and/or your family members hope to make as a result of the therapy process. We have found that those who experience the most successful outcomes here have:

1. Clearly defined as goals what they hope to achieve. Usually this is done during the first or second session and revised as necessary.
2. Formed an effective working relationship with their therapist or doctor. Be sure to talk over any concerns or questions you have about the therapy process with your therapist or doctor.
3. Kept appointments as scheduled; each visit builds on the ones before.
4. Done any recommended “homework” between sessions. In many ways, what you do at home, work or school can have a profound effect on your progress.
5. Have discussed expectations that may exceed the scope of private practice behavioral health services.

The Center is deeply committed to providing you with the highest quality comprehensive state-of-the-art behavioral health services for children, adolescents, adults, couples, and families. We utilize a variety of therapeutic approaches and services to help you successfully adapt and balance life’s stressors and challenges as you move toward a fuller, richer life. We thank you for placing your confidence in us and look forward to meeting with you.

Sincerely,
Victoria L. Williams, MSN, Psy.D., LCP
Licensed Clinical Psychologist
Director, The Center for Psychological Services, Ltd.

our Center, as well as connections within the community, so that we can offer additional recommendations better suited for you, should this be appropriate.

The beginning of services will involve an evaluation of your needs and goals as a couple. In the first few meetings we will discuss initial impressions, treatment plan, and methodologies that are most likely to be useful for your partnership.

APPOINTMENTS

Appointments will ordinarily be once per week or as agreed upon. Typically sessions become less frequent as you gain traction in achieving your goals. It is important to be on time for your scheduled appointments since sessions will end on time regardless of your arrival time.

Should you need to cancel or reschedule a session, please give at least 24 hrs notice. Insurance companies do not provide reimbursement for canceled sessions. If you miss a session without canceling or cancel with less than 24 hrs notice, our policy is to collect $50 per missed therapy session or $150 for missed testing sessions (unless we both agree that you were unable to attend due to circumstances beyond your control). If it is possible, we will try to find another time to reschedule your appointment.

PROFESSIONAL FEES

The standard fee is $168 per hour. It is our practice to charge this amount on a prorated basis for sessions that require more time (e.g., Emergency Evaluations or Wellbeing Checks), other professional services that you may require such as report writing, telephone conversations that last longer than 10 minutes, attendance at meetings or consultations which you have requested, or the time required to perform other services which you may request.

PAYMENT TERMS AND INSURANCE

We strongly believe that part of a healthy working alliance involves staying current with your account here at The Center for Psychological Services. This enables us to pay your therapist/counselor for services rendered.

When you initiate services, our Billing Office will obtain a quote of benefits from your insurance company and will share that information with you. (as a reminder, this is a quote of benefits, not a guarantee of payment)

If your insurance carrier or coverage should change, you are responsible for notifying us of this fact. If this results in an increase of your session fee, you are responsible for this additional payment; should it reduce your fee, we will adjust on our end.

If our Center is not a participating provider for services in your insurance plan, we will supply you with the invoice necessary to submit to your insurance company. We also offer a “fee for service” option.

Your portion of the session fee is due at the point of service. Please check in with our Front Desk to pay fees before your session; should our Front Desk not be available, kindly pay your therapist by the end of your session. If someone from your family is receiving services and not responsible for payment, please be sure payment arrangements are made before the session. We welcome credit cards, cash or check; there is a $30 charge for returned checks. Future appointments are scheduled when accounts are current.

LIMITS OF CONFIDENTIALITY

When you attend couples therapy sessions, you as the couple are considered to be “the client” and your mental health records therefore belong to both of you. This means that except in the circumstances below, your therapist will need a written consent from both of you in order to disclose any information from your record to a third party.

- In most legal proceedings, you have the right to prevent us from providing any information about your treatment. In some proceedings involving child custody and those in which your emotional condition is an important issue, a judge may order our testimony. However, such an order is unlikely. We would advise you never to agree to any release of information without first discussing it with us.
- There are some situations in which we are legally obligated to take action to protect others from harm, even if we have to reveal some information about a client’s treatment. For example, if we believe that a child, elderly person or disabled person is being abused, we must file a report with the appropriate state agency.
- If we believe that a client is threatening bodily harm to another, we may be required to take protective actions. These actions may include notifying the potential victim, contacting the police, or seeking hospitalization for our clients.
- If a client threatens harm to herself/himself, we may be obligated to seek a higher level of care including hospitalization, and/or to contact family members who may help provide protection. If a similar situation occurs in the course of our work together, we will attempt to fully discuss it with you before taking any action.

Legal Proceedings: You also understand that couples therapy is for therapeutic purposes and not intended for use in any legal proceedings involving the partners. You agree not to subpoena your therapist to testify for or against either party or to provide records in a court action.

Boundaries: Because the relationship is the main focus of couples therapy both partners of a couple must be present for the couples session to start. It is often not in the best interest of the couple to distribute time unevenly between partners, or to have unplanned meetings with only one partner present. If one partner is late arriving or does not show for the appointment, we reserve the right to delay the start of the session or to cancel the session if necessary, which could result in charging a late cancellation or no-show fee.

No Secrets: We have a policy of no secrets. Your therapist, who is entrusted with information from both partners of a relationship, cannot promise to protect secrets of either partner from the other person. This is especially the case if the secret is harmful or destructive to the process of the therapy itself, or undermines the agreed upon intention of the therapy.

Length of couples therapy: The length of time for couples therapy depends on the severity level of the problems, history of past trauma/infidelity/or betrayals, and the presence of co-occurring emotional or psychological issues.

Limitations to Couples Therapy: Couples therapy can only be effective in cases where both partners put in a good faith effort to work on their problems and their relationship. Deliberate dishonesty or deceit, unwillingness to introspect or take responsibility for one’s actions, or lack of interest or motivation to engage in the couples therapy process, by one or both partners, will undermine the therapy.

CONTACTING YOUR THERAPIST

We check our voicemails throughout the business day at the Center and return calls typically within 24 hours except weekends and holidays. When leaving a voicemail or electronic communication, please be specific and brief.

If for unseen reasons, you do not hear from your therapist or there is difficulty in reaching you, and safety is a concern for you or your child, please go to your nearest Emergency Room or call 911 and ask to speak to the mental health worker on call.

Your therapist will let you know in advance of planned absences, and provide you with contact information of a mental health professional to contact if necessary.

** We the client, understand and consent to the above terms, and agree to initiate treatment at The Center for Psychological Services.**

IV - ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS STATEMENT

Electronic Medical Records/Communication:

At The Center for Psychological Services, we use an electronic medical records system and patient portal messaging system that is HIPAA compliant.

Email Communication:

This form of communication is not advised. Please use the “message” feature via your Patient Portal.

Text Communication:

Should you have an agreement with your therapist to utilize texting as means to communicate, Please be advised that due to the nature of variable security measures and phone service providers, we do not encourage or promote a text exchange that goes beyond non-personal dialogue, i.e. rescheduling/confirming an appointment.

Social Media:

Our center policy is to not communicate with clients through social media platforms like Twitter, or Facebook. In addition, if your therapist discovers that he/she has accidentally established an online relationship with you, they will cancel that relationship. This is because these types of casual social contacts can create significant security risks for you.

Website:

We have a website which we use for professional reasons to provide information to others about our practice. You are welcome to access and review the information that is on the website, and if you have any questions about it, we should discuss this during your therapy sessions.
